Bio

Milly is a multi-award winning production designer for film, TV and commercials from South Yorkshire.

Milly has designed over fifteen short films, across live action, animation and documentary. Her work has won numerous awards, including Best Production Design at the Royal Television Society Awards (post-graduate category) for Night of the Living Dread and a BAFTA nomination for the same film.

Other work of Milly's has received wins, nominations and selections at prestigious festivals including: BAFTA, Cannes, LFF, BIFA, the Annie Awards and more. She has worked with leading production companies such as Disney Imagine, Sky and Amazon Studios as well as global brands including LEGO, Xbox and McLaren.

Milly's career also includes work in major motion pictures. Productions include; Sam Mendes' Empire of Light, Andy Muschetti's The Flash and Bong Joon Ho's Mickey 17. Most recently, Milly was an Assistant Art Director on the, currently untitled, Joe Kosinski Formula One film.

With experience producing multi-million pound set builds for major studios, as well as designing and set decorating short films and commercials, Milly is passionate about telling stories through design, right down to the most minute of details.
